

Roger Strong Dialogue

A doctor, a lawyer, a Lutheran. So what are you, Frank? 'Cause I think you're about to ask my daughter's hand in marriage, and I have a right to know. I want the truth. What are you doing here? What is a man of your accomplishments doing with Brenda? If you want my blessing...if you want my daughter...I'd like to hear the truth from you now.

Hang on...I know what you are (pause) You're a romantic. Yes you are. Men like us are nothing without the women we love. So, alright Frank, ask that question you came here to ask.
